

KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

WISCONSIN

Your Voting Rights for Election Day—November 4

You may vote in Wisconsin if:

- You will be at least 18 years old by Election Day.
- You are a U.S. citizen by birth or by naturalization. (If you were born in Puerto Rico, you are AUTOMATICALLY a U.S. citizen.)
- You will be a Wisconsin resident for at least 28 days by Election Day.

You may vote in Wisconsin EVEN if:

- You don't speak English (as long as you are a U.S. citizen).
- You are an Ex-Felon (as long as you are off paper—not on probation, parole or extended supervision because of a felony or bribery conviction). If you've only been convicted of a MISDEMEANOR, you CAN vote—even while you are serving your sentence.
- You are a student living away from your parents (you can choose to vote at your school residence or your family's home). You may only vote once.

Do I need photo ID to vote on Election Day?

- Right now, photo ID is not required to vote and we do not expect that to change before November. Stay in touch with the ACLU and Wisconsin Election Protection to be sure.

Do I have to sign the poll book?

- Yes. Voters must sign next to their names on the poll book to get a ballot (unless you can't sign because of a disability).

How do I register?

- You can register with a special registration deputy or by mail until Oct. 15
- You can register at the clerk's office until Oct. 31
- You can register at the polls on Election Day.
- To register you need one of the following - and the document must have your name and current address: a recent utility bill (electric, cell, gas, cable, internet, etc.); a lease; a WI drivers license or ID card; a bank statement; a pay check; any government document or check; any ID card issued by a WI governmental body; an employer ID card with your photo; a letter from any agency that serves homeless persons (does NOT have to be an overnight shelter); or a WI college/university photo ID along with a tuition fee receipt.

- You can use paper or electronic copies of these documents (if it's on your smartphone or tablet, you just show it to the person registering you).
- You cannot use credit card bills, collection notices, magazines, or personal mail as proof of residence.
- If you have a Wisconsin driver's license, bring it to put the license number on the voter registration form. (If you don't have a license, use your state ID card number or the last four digits of your Social Security number). If you don't know the number, get it from the DMV by calling 608-266-2353.

Can I vote early or absentee?

- You can register (if you need to) and vote early from Oct. 20—24 / Oct. 27-31 at the clerk's office.
- You can also register (if you need to) and by Thurs. Oct. 30, fill out a form to have an absentee ballot mailed to you. The ballot must be postmarked by Tuesday, Nov. 4 and the clerk must receive it by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 7.

What If I move after Oct. 7?

- If you move between Oct. 7 and Nov. 4, you need to register and vote at the Wisconsin address you lived at before moving. If you move from another state after Oct. 7, you can not vote in Wisconsin this year.
